Special and Important Notice to the Public.

The manager of the Gazette takes pleasure in making the announcement that the price of the Daily Gazette has been reduced to one dollar a quarter, 50 cents a month, or one dollar a week, commencing February 1st, thus placing it within the reach of every family in the city and making it by all odds the cheapest daily newspaper published in the state.

He also gives the notice that the city circulation of the Gazette has been placed in the hands of Mr. Will H. Cheney.

Briefs.

—Visit the skating rink this evening.

—Mr. E. H. Pelton, of Glen street, second ward, has been housed a few days past by illness.

—Captain W. D. Cargill, of North bluff street, second ward, is confined to his home by sickness.

—Mr. C. W. Ferguson has returned home from a somewhat extended trip through the sunny south.

—Father Patrick Knox, of Fitchburg, Wisconsin, preached an interesting sermon in St. Mary's church, last evening.

—A half-dozen or more tramps were housed at the Harper hotel last night. They came in squads from different parts of the country.

—Mr. Fred Sonneborn will start for New York to-morrow morning, for the purpose of purchasing his mammoth stock of spring goods.

—Under Sheriff R. T. Pember, of Johnston, celebrated Washington's birthday, by marketing several loads of grain in this city to-day.

—Prof. Seaverance's dancing school at Apollo hall, last evening, was the scene of much pleasure, which was participated in by the usual large assemblage.

—A light snow storm set in here at about eight o'clock last night, and continued for several hours. Only an inch or so of snow was added to the snow on hand.

—The school children are about the only ones in the city who are celebrating Washington's birthday. They are having a two-days time of it, as there will be no school until Monday.

We publish in another column of this evening's Gazette, an article from the Chicago Druggist, on the Wisconsin pharmacy law, which will be read with interest by many of our readers.

—Deacon Eldred, of Janesville, is in the city. Deacon Eldred is treasurer of the Janesville cotton factory and is here to purchase lumber for the new building to be erected by the cotton company this season. —Oshkosh Northwestern.

—Street Commissioner John Brown is meeting with considerable trouble just now in collecting the delinquent poll-tax. Many citizens resort to old-time devices in their endeavors to avoid paying the tax. But it has to be paid in the end.

—The attendance at the mission in St. Patrick's church, is large, both morning and evening. "The True Church of Jesus Christ," the subject announced for this morning, will be delivered by the Rev. Father Dames. Non-Catholics are cordially invited.

—We were shown to-day twelve very handsome crosses, executed by Mr. W. L. Gookins. They are of solid silver, having engraved on the transverse arms the words, in German text, "Omnia ad Deum Gloriam." Both the workmanship and engraving are evidence of care and skill.

—A dispatch from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, of yesterday's date says: Fleming B. Lewis, a hack-driver of this city, was arrested at a late hour last night, charged with the robbery of the mails on the 8th inst. The arrest was made by Postoffice Inspectors A. C. Beers and J. D. King, who worked up the case. Lewis confessed and returned the money—amounting to $2,490—except $30, which he had spent. He had heretofore had a good reputation.

—"How to become interested in the study of the bible," was the subject of Rev. Dr. Hodge's lecture in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., last evening, which was listened to by a very large audience, at the close of which a vote of thanks was tendered the reverend gentleman. The next lecture will be delivered on Wednesday evening of next week, by Rev. W. F. Brown, of the Presbyterian church.

—Notwithstanding that to-day is Washington's birthday, and a national legal holiday, the only evidences of such an event being noticed in Janesville are the closed doors of the banks, a deserted court house, and a general dull day for business. The American flag is not visible in any part of the city. Neither of the militia, or fire companies have taken the trouble to fire the stately banner to the breeze. But the day will come and go, just the same, as long as the Goddess of Liberty, standing on the dome of the national capital building, continues to wear moccasins.

—The telephone company have recently placed in the central office in this city a new annunciator table, manufactured by the Northwestern electrical manufacturing company of Chicago. The table is a great improvement over the old one in use here; it requires less than half the room; accommodates fifty more wires, is easily managed, and Miss Minnie Eley, the lady who answers all the hellos, thinks it is perfection. The Janesville office is now under the local management of Mr. A. Burdett, with Mr. R. Ducrest as line repairer. There are now in use in this city seventy telephones.

—Judge Bennett, returned to-day, from Jefferson, where he has been holding court for the last month. The jury cases are all finished, and he has adjourned the court until the 9th of April next, when the law cases will be disposed of.

Judge Bennett will hold court here on the 27th inst. and on the 5th of March he will go to Monroe, to preside at the Green county court.

The attorneys and people of Jefferson county, are very much pleased with the new Judge's manner of disposing of business; and the Jefferson Banner of to-day says that for dignity, courtesy and impartiality, Judge Bennett has no superior on the bench.

In the Kodisch murder trial at Jefferson, in which John Kodisch and his wife, living near Watertown, were charged with compelling the husband's mother, who was 95 years of age, to sleep in the barn during the coldest nights of last December, where she was one morning found dead, with cuts and bruises on the body showing that violence had been added to exposure in the endeavor to shorten her life, the jury last night found both guilty of murder in the first degree. They are stolid and ignorant Bohemians, and though they have resided in this country for nearly thirty years, are unable to speak a word of English. The trial lasted a week, and aroused much interest, the court room being daily crowded with spectators, many of whom were ladies.

JOINED TOGETHER.

NOLAN—MURDOCK.

The marriage of Mr. Thomas S. Nolan and Miss Jessie Murdock took place this afternoon at two o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents in the first ward. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Hodge, pastor of the Baptist church.

Promptly at two o'clock, Miss Allie Child began the wedding march on the piano, when the bride and groom entered the parlor, unattended, and stood under the beautiful arch, while Dr. Hodge performed the ceremony. Heartily congratulations followed, after which the happy couple led the guests to the dining room, where an elaborate dinner had been prepared. The presents were numerous, and many of them were elegant and costly. Among them were:

A decorated china dinner set from Kate M. Nolan, sister of the groom.

A rose decorated china set from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Poey.

A gold watch and chain from the groom to the bride.

One hundred dollars in gold from Mr. and Mrs. Murdock.

A set of fruit plates from Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leonard.

Cambridge book of song from Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Fethers.

A large lamp from Miss Allie Child.

A silver cake basket from Mr. and Mrs. T. Wheeler.

A book of golden treasury from Charles St. John, of Cambridge, Massachusetts.

A silver casket from Eddie Murdock.

A large family bible from Kate M. Nolan.

A silver bottle casket from Frank Hoskins.

Silver bouquet holder from Belle and Jessie Dearborn.

An ivory handle carving knife and fork, from Floyd Murdock.

An embroidered pin cushion and counterpane, from Mr. Myron Clark.

An elegant coffee pot, from W. S. Bennett.

A silver butter dish from Arthur M. Carrier.

A German student lamp from Robert McLean.

Silver bouquet holder from Sarah E. Hutchison.

A set of cut-glass toilet bottles from Mary E. Poey.

A card receiver from Mrs. B. B. Eldredge.

A silver syrup cup from May E. Carrier.

Silver sugar shell from George and Grace.

Silver fruit dish from Fred J. Myler.

A silver pickle casket from Mrs. Abbie Wilcox.

Plaques work from Kate M. Nolan.

Silver cake stand from Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith.

A richly embroidered towel from Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brand.

A bouquet holder, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Street.

An embroidered table scarf from Julia McDermott, of Boston.

A set of silver nut picks from Mr. and Mrs. Shickney.

A lambrequin from Gertrude Hemming.

A large celery dish from Miss Cornelia Reddy.

The happy couple left on the 4:25 train for Madison. Before returning home they will visit Milwaukee and other places. They have a host of friends in the city who will heartily wish them long continued health and happiness.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 21 degrees above zero, and at one o'clock p. m. 31 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy—westerly wind. For the same hours one year ago, the register was 2 and 17 degrees above zero.

The Clifford Murder Case.

The blood-stained murder of Captain Wm. R. Pugh, by the Milwaukee gambler, Hartley Clifford, is still fresh in the minds of every citizen in Racine. His trial and conviction at Janesville, in December last, will also be remembered, and when it was learned that he had been found guilty of murder in the first degree, there was much rejoicing and a thought it was just. As a last resort to save him from a life in state prison, his attorneys carried the case to the supreme court on a bill of exceptions, and to-day the news was reported here that a new trial had been granted the murderer. It was received with much regret, as the case has cost the county heavily already, and if ever a villain deserved a life in prison it is Hartley Clifford. It is the opinion of legal talent that a new trial will be of no avail, and it is to be hoped such will be the case.

THE REPORT FALSE.

The Journal telegraphed to its Madison correspondent for the full decision of the court, and received the following dispatch, which would indicate that the Whitney Clifford case to which the Chicago Times referred to is not the Hartley Clifford case in which Racine has so deep an interest.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 21.—There is no record in the supreme court of the Hartley Clifford case. If the appeal has been made, the court has not been notified. —Racine Journal.

Upon inquiring of Mr. Baldwin, clerk of the circuit court, this afternoon, we were informed that the record of the case in the Rock county circuit court had been completed, and would be forwarded to the supreme court at Madison this afternoon; but that the case would probably not be called in that court before the June term, unless by special arrangement of the attorneys. The papers in the case cover three hundred and fifty-seven printed foolscap pages, besides forty-one pages of closely written matter.

The Rink.

The roller skating rink of Messrs. Smith & Richardson, in Young America hall, was opened last evening in the presence of a large audience of ladies and gentlemen, many of whom availed themselves of the opportunity to test their equilibrium on skates. The skating of Mr. Smith, and master Jackson, a lad of fourteen years, was very fine, and they frequently received the applause of the spectators. The fun was kept up until half past ten o'clock. The Catholic corner band furnished some excellent music during the evening. The rink will be open day and evening, mornings from 10 to 12:30; in the afternoon from 2 to 4:30, and in the evening from 7:30 to 10:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, of Milwaukee, will be at the rink this evening, and will each give an exhibition on roller skates, as will also Mr. Smith and master Jackson.

A Card of Welcome.

In reply to the communication of Mr. Hyde, in which he extends to me such heartfelt thanks (?) for advertising him, permit me to say, he is entirely welcome. I shall endeavor to favor him in like manner in the future. When a person comes here and announces on his printed list that he retails books at less than wholesale prices, the trick should be exposed. This I have done. Mr. Hyde knows that this is the source of his trouble. It is this and the further fact that persons come from the store every day and purchase at the old pioneer bookstore, that makes him squeal. Regretting that the Hyde has proven more sensitive than the conscience, I am in hearty welcome.

State Regimental Districts.

Adjutant General Chandler P. Chapman, when interviewed upon the subject of the regimental division of the state, said: "We are awaiting the decision of the Milwaukee companies before taking further measures. My idea is to divide the state into four regimental districts, the first regiment to consist of eight companies within the district south of the north line of Rock county; eight companies more south of an east and west line passing south of Portage and north of Beaver Dam; another district to consist of four Milwaukee companies; one at Watertown, one at Beaver Dam and two at Madison; the rest of the state to constitute another district. This would divide the third and fourth districts by a north and third line passing east of Portage. The four regimental districts would contain respectively the following companies by substituting the newly organized Wausau Light Guards for the Bayfield Rifles, disbanded, and transferring the Portage company into the third district, thus connecting the regiments excellently as regards railroad and other communication:

First regiment: Janesville Guards, Janesville, headquarters; Bowler City Rifles, Janesville; Gunter Rifles, White-water; Delavan Guards, Delavan; Beloit City Guards, Beloit; Racine Light Guard, Racine; Garfield Guard, Racine; Monroe City Guard, Monroe. Already organized.

Second regiment: Manitowish Volunteers, Manitowish; Oshkosh Guard, Oshkosh; Evergreen City Guard, Sheboygan; Ripon Rifles, Ripon; Fond du Lac Guard, Fond du Lac; Oshkosh Rifles, Oshkosh; Appleton Light Infantry, Appleton; Prairie City Guard, Ripon; Rankin Guards, Manitowish. Already organized.

Third regiment: Sherman Guard, Neillsville; Governor's Guard, La Crosse; La Crosse Light Guard, La Crosse; Mauston Light Guard, Mauston; constituting the fifth regiment, but will probably be made a regiment one week by addition of Menomonie company; Wausau, two companies, Portage, one company.

Fourth regiment: South Side Turner Rifles, Lincoln Guard, Sheridan Guard, Kossuth Guard, all of Milwaukee; Governor's Guard, Madison; Lake City Guard, Madison; Watertown Rifles, Watertown; Burchard Guard, Beaver Dam.

"There will be three regiments anyway, and it depends on the action of the four Milwaukee companies whether a fourth regimental organization shall exist. They have held frequent meetings, but have arrived at no conclusion so far. If they desire, they can organize as a battalion, leaving the fourth district with two battalion organizations and the rest of the state with three regiments. Until the Milwaukee companies agree nothing can be done." —Madison Journal.
